Lutheran schools have said, "Let the Children Come." Over the past 11 years, many children have come to Atonement Preschool to learn. They have learned about numbers, letters, sharing and friendship. They have also learned that they are God's beloved children. We would love to have your child join our Christian preschool to learn in an environment that encourages faith, honesty, trust, respect and responsibility.

The following comments are from our parent's survey sent out in December 2008.

- We've noticed a drastic change in our son's attention span, cooperation and educational progress - for the better - we're very pleased! Great job - thank you all!
