REFORMATION SUNDAY: OCTOBER 25

Rooted in the past and growing into the future, the church must always be reformed in order to live out the love of Christ in an ever-changing world. We celebrate the good news of God's grace, that Jesus Christ sets us free every day to do this life-transforming work. Trusting in the freedom given to us in baptism, we pray for the church, that Christians will unite more fully in worship and mission.

October 4th Anna Marie's Alliance: A Community Response to Domestic Violence

Anna Marie's Alliance reaches thousands of people in the five counties surrounding St. Cloud. Each year, their 36-bed emergency shelter houses nearly 500 individuals and their children as they flee relationship abuse. Prevention and Education initiatives reach approximately 4,000 school-age youth, teaching them valuable relationship skills and ways to create healthy boundaries. Join us to hear Charles Hempeck, Executive Director of Anna Marie's Alliance, explain the part that we can each play in creating a community where violence is not tolerated and where every home is a safe one.

October 11th Council Update

It's been a time of change at Atonement, especially on our surrounding streets and in our parking lot! Please join Debbie Niemeyer, President of the Council, Jill Abrahamson, Treasurer, and other Council members for an update on Committees, their work, and Atonement overall. Please bring your questions!

ASLAN
HEALTH

CARING FOR OUR NEIGHBORS

Come learn how Aslan Health combines affordable primary care with Christian service to meet the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of people in the St. Cloud area. Medical Director Rebecca White will share why the clinic was founded, whom it serves, and how community partnerships, volunteers, and donors help make quality healthcare accessible to uninsured and underinsured neighbors. She will also share patient stories and ways the community can become involved. Join us!

October 25th A Theology of Kinship: Your Place in the Family of Things

Fish don't know they are surrounded by water. We don't know much about what we swim in either. What if our dominant theologies contribute to making us lonely; what if much of Western theology got some things pretty wrong when considering the ecological realities facing us? Let's talk: Where is God? What is the role of humans in the world? Is God human-centered? Does it matter? Join us for an intriguing presentation by Michael Schut, Senior Director of Mission Engagement for the Franciscan Sisters of Little Falls.

SHEET DRIVE

The Mission Quilters are having a "Sheet Drive" and we would appreciate donations of new or gently used sheets. Quilts made by this quilting group are donated to local agencies in the community, the Giving Tree (at Christmas time) and presented to our graduating seniors in the spring. Twin size top sheets are being used by the quilters for the backing on the quilts we assemble. When we have the funds we have purchased 4 yards of solid color fabrics for the quilt's backing. Donations may be left in the white chest in the hallway by the office.

MEALS ON WHEELS

Catholic Charities is looking for volunteers to deliver meals as part of their Meals on Wheels program. Meals are delivered Monday through Friday to local residence. THINGS TO KNOW

MESSAGE FROM ATONEMENT'S PRAYER SHAWL GROUP

Another Minnesota summer has drawn to a close and we are seeing the brilliant colors of fall all around us. Through all our seasons, the Atonement Prayer Shawl Group has been busy creating prayer shawls, baby blankets and lap robes.

We would like to invite members of Atonement to help us spread God's love by taking one of these items to a shut in, someone going through an illness or difficult time or someone celebrating a joyous occasion.

Our new prayer shawl display case is in the fellowship hall and we want to say a "big" thank you to Dayton Herbranson for putting the display case together for us. If you see a shawl that you would like to give to someone, contact Laura in the office or Bonnie at 320-281-3043 to open the case for you. Please record your gift in the black book. The lap robes and baby blankets are available in marked totes in the church library. Thank you for helping us share God's gift of love and grace with others.

CAREGIVERS SUPPORT GROUP/RESPITE

It's been a full year since Atonement has provided meeting rooms for the Caregiver Support Group and Respite. Formerly in association with Vivie until their grant ended, the two dedicated staff will continue independently with the hope that other funding becomes available. The groups meet once a month on the third Tuesday, 10-11:30am. Specialists who are trained in the areas of caregiver needs and in the various stages of dementia-related illness, lead each group. Atonement members will continue to provide greeters and coffee hosts for them.

ROLLING INTO ANOTHER SEASON OF LEFSE!

God's work. Our hands. And a lot of lefse.

It's lefse time at Atonement! Come join the fun this October and November as we roll, cook, and mix lefse to sell at our Advent Tea celebration. Whether it's your very first time or your hundredth, we'd love for you to be part of this Scandinavian—and Atonement—tradition.

Sign up for one shift or several, and know that all proceeds benefit local non-profit social service organizations. Questions? Call Eric Vollen at 651-272-9132 or Jon Ness at 651-472-4628, or email nessvollen@gmail.com.

WANT A FUN NIGHT OUT?

Growing Up Lutheran

Janet Letnes Martin, Co-Author of "Growing up Lutheran" and 17 other humorous books about being Lutheran and Scandinavian, is coming to Atonement on October 19th, 7pm. Her enjoyable presentation is titled "Uffda! How do I sort out the Begats!" and is free to the public. This evening program on "begats" (ancestry, lineage, and genealogy) is sure to be filled with laughter. Janet's friend, Margit, a Master Genealogist, will be available for answering questions on researching family history.

Included (in Church Basement Ladies' fashion) will be a JELLO CONTEST (bring along your favorite Jello to be judged)! Prizes awarded. Refreshments provided! ~ Sponsored by the Sons of Norway Trollheim Lodge #511

SOMETHING NEW

I have added a cross hidden somewhere in the newsletter ... and it is not the heading on page 1 or the cross in Catholic Charities logos. If you find it, call or email me BY October 15th where it is located and your name will be entered in a drawing. Winners of gas gift cards in September are Dianne Sandal who was first to find it and Jill Abrahamson who was drawn from those who responded.

THANK YOU

Thank you, Atonement Lutheran, for the continued support of Les Voyageurs Inc! Over the course of the summer a crew of nine used the church multiple times to prepare for a life changing expedition. The trip was a success in part to Atonement's generosity with your space, and we are very appreciative of it! Thank you to the pastors, the quilting group, and kitchen helpers for extending strong support to the young men!

The 9 young men we supported by sharing our space as they prepared to experience the wonders of Gods gifts of nature.

Special Olympics has discontinued selling wreaths, etc but thank you for your support.
The Lions and Boy Scouts sell wreaths.

FINANCIAL GIVING

The Finance Committee reports that church giving as a whole has fallen behind over the summer. Your contributions through general fund giving help ensure continuing church operations, staff support and essential ministries. Prayerfully consider what you are able to give either with a check or by signing up for convenient electronic giving options. For assistance in setting up electronic giving, please contact Laura at the church office --- 320-252-6203. It will only take a few minutes!

Reminder: Please make checks payable to Atonement and write on the memo line what it's for (Mission of the Month, packing projects, VBS, memorials, flowers, etc).

THANK YOU!

ENJOY

A ship was sailing past a remote island and discovered a man who had been stranded there for several years. They went ashore to rescue the man and noticed he had built three huts for himself. They asked him, "What is the first hut for?"

He said, "That's my house."

"Ok, so what's the second hut for?"

"That's my church."

"Ok, so what's that other hut over there for?"

"Oh... that. That's the church I used to go to."

LETTER FROM YOUR PASTORS

Sharing the Joy: Part 1

When Pastor Tim's daughter, Vera, was in graduate school in Michigan, she found herself longing for a faith community where she could hear the good news of Christ's love for her.

She had received a few invitations from friends to other churches. The people at these churches were kind and well meaning, but what she encountered was often more about what she needed to do to be a better person than what God had done and was still doing for her. What Vera longed to hear was that she was loved by Christ, no matter what!

You are Invited

One day, while working in a clinic, Vera saw a patient who invited her to his church. It turned out that he was the pastor of a United Methodist congregation in town. As they talked, he told her that he was simply trying to share the love of God in Christ Jesus in a world that seemed to have plenty of law and not nearly enough grace.

Vera's ears perked up at the 'elevator pitch', but what intrigued her most was the simple, matter-of-fact invitation: "Come and see." So, she did. She went to worship at that church—and she stayed. She heard the good news at a time in her life when she was lonely, far from family, and struggling with the demands of graduate school. She heard that, in her baptism, she was already claimed by the love of God. And she kept coming back to worship, where she was welcomed, loved, and cared for.

One simple invitation became a place where Vera encountered the grace of God and found a faith community that helped sustain her through a difficult time in her life. Sometimes we have no idea what God might do with a simple invitation!

What strikes us about stories like this is how simple an invitation can be. You see someone, the spirit moves you, and you say, "Come and see." And an invitation that might have seemed small to you becomes important to the person receiving it.

Sometimes we make inviting someone to church more complicated than it needs to be. The right words, a compelling argument, or some special skill are NOT required.

We have something great to share. So, we encourage you to make inviting friends, neighbors, coworkers, and family members an on-purpose part of your everyday lives. This is not because we need to fill seats in the sanctuary or check off an item on our religious to-do list. We invite others to worship because we want to share what God has already done for us in Jesus Christ.

We Invite Because Scripture Shows Us How

In Scripture, we see how God's people shared what they received from God. Throughout the New Testament, people who encountered Jesus told others what they had seen and heard.

- Andrew meets Jesus and then goes to find his brother Simon: "We have found the Messiah" (John 1:41).
- Philip meets Jesus and goes looking for Nathanael: "Come and see" (John 1:46).

- After encountering Jesus, the Samaritan woman goes back to her community and tells them about Jesus (John 4:28–30).
- And in Acts 10, Cornelius gathers his relatives and close friends because he wants them to hear the good news too.

Notice what these people don't do - they don't give a theological lecture or try to answer every possible objection. They don't have all the answers. They simply invite others to “come and see.” This is something we can all do.

We Invite Because God First Came to Us

Think about the way God has loved you. God did not wait for you to find your way to him. In Jesus, God comes to us. Christ enters our world as one of us, takes on our sin, dies on the cross, and is raised from the dead. The good news of the gospel is not that we finally figured out how to get to God - it is that God came looking for us!

When we invite someone into the life of faith, we share that same love. We are saying, “This is really important to me, and I’d love to share it with you.” There is no coercion or pressure, just an invitation filled with love.

We Invite Because Good News Is Worth Sharing

Think about how we share good things.

- We tell others about a new restaurant we discovered.
- We recommend a book we just read and loved.
- We send friends pictures from a beautiful place we visit
- We share pictures of grandchildren!

When something brings us joy, we don't have to be convinced to tell others about it – it just bubbles out of us!

Our life together as “the church” is a gift worth sharing. At Atonement we hear the promises of God, we receive forgiveness, we sing, we pray, we gather around Word and Sacrament. Every week we are reminded that our worth does not depend on us or our accomplishments. We are not valued by God because of anything we have or haven’t done. We are beloved children of God because of what God has done for us in Christ. That is good news worth sharing.

We Invite Because People Need to Hear the Good News

So, who comes to mind?

Maybe it is a friend who has drifted away from the faith. Maybe a neighbor who has never really had a faith community. Maybe a family member who is going through a difficult time. Or someone you know who needs to hear again that they are loved by God in Christ.

- Think of one person. Not ten. Just one.
- Pray for that person.
- And then, when the opportunity comes, make an invitation.

It may feel small to you. It may not feel particularly profound or spiritual. But don't underestimate what God can do with a simple invitation offered in love.

We have been given a joy that is not meant to keep to ourselves. We hear every week the good news that Christ has died and risen for us, that our sins are forgiven, and that God's love for us does not depend upon what we have or haven't done. That's worth sharing!

Next month, we'll get practical. What does a good invitation actually sound like? What do we say if someone says no? Most importantly, what do we do when someone says yes?

COME AND SEE

Inviting someone to church is only the beginning. When someone accepts the invitation, we have an opportunity to welcome them, walk with them, and help them experience the same grace and love that may have brought us here and certainly keeps us here.

Until then, think of one person. And when the opportunity comes, simply say: "Come and see."
