WORSHIP NEWS

NOVEMBER 1ST: ALL SAINTS

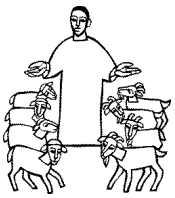

Today we give thanks for the saints who have gone before us, for the saints still among us, and for the saints of God still to come. We give thanks for the examples of faithful living that the saints have given us as they navigated the stormy waters of life, and also for the faithful acts of service we are empowered by God's Holy Spirit to do in our own seas. We give thanks, too, for the fullness of eternal life in which the saints of God who have gone before us now partake and which we have yet to fully enjoy.

NOVEMBER 4TH AND 8TH: CONSECRATION SUNDAY

Please remember to bring your consecration cards to worship. There will be a light brunch following the Sunday service.

NOVEMBER 22ND: CHRIST THE KING

On this final Sunday of the church year our gospel is Jesus' great story of judgment. In the end, the faithful are those who served Christ by ministering to those who are poor, hungry, naked, sick, or estranged. In the first reading God is the shepherd who seeks the lost, weak, and injured and feeds them with justice. We gather this day to celebrate the reign of Christ and his victory over death, yet we await the consummation of all things yet to come. Acknowledging Christ as our merciful ruler, we go forth that his reign may be known in our loving words and deeds.

NOVEMBER 25TH: 6:30pm THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Followed by a Pie Social; choir sponsored.

ADVENT 2026

Now is the time to get ready for the season of Advent. At Atonement we will be using arrangements of greenery and flowers to celebrate this wonderful season. You will have the opportunity to help with the decor by donating money "in honor of" and "in memory of" the special people in your lives. Look for the donation envelopes on the ushers table, the welcome station and in the office beginning November 20th. Please give your envelope and desired amount in cash or check to the person in the office. Thank you for your contribution to our worship environment. ….From the Worship Environment Team

ADULT EDUCATION

November features two Adult Ed sessions, each following the 9am Sunday service. We meet in the southeast corner of the Fellowship Hall where coffee, water, and treats will be waiting for you. Please join us!

November 1st - We Need to Talk

Are you concerned about someone and their driving skills, but don't know how to have that conversation? We will talk about having a sensitive and successful conversation with your loved one. Join our own Mata Carlson as she tells us why she decided to give up driving in her seventies, what people need to think about when considering the decision, and the advantages of not driving. Mata will share guidelines for the topic and resources that may be available. Come to learn, discuss, and share!

November 8th and 29th

Adult Ed will not meet on November 8th, Consecration Sunday, and November 29th, the Sunday of Thanksgiving weekend.

November 15th – Packing Blizzard Bags

We will be packing 100 Blizzard Bags that will be given to Catholic Charities for those receiving Home Delivered Meals. Each bag will have a can of soup, crackers, juice, tuna salad and crackers, fruit cup, and cookie. These bags are given to people so that if there's bad weather and meals can't be delivered, they will have food available. Please join us in the Fellowship Hall after services.

November 22nd - Camphill Village

Camphill is a worldwide social initiative creating communities designed for children, youth, and adults with and without intellectual disabilities where they can live, learn, and work with others in healthy relationships based on mutual care and respect. There are more than 100 Camphill communities in 22 countries; 15 of those are in North America.

Our own Sam Kjolhaug lives and thrives at Camphill Village Minnesota, located ten miles north of Sauk Centre. Sam, his mom, Kathy Kjolhaug, and a representative from the Village will tell us all about Camphill. This month's Mission of the Month is designated to Camphill. Please join us!

ATONEMENT'S MISSION OF THE MONTH

Please remember our Mission of the Months if you are away from church.

November: Camphill Village

Camphill Village Minnesota is located on a 500-acre biodynamic farm ten miles north of Sauk Centre in Central Minnesota. People live together family-style in seven large homes. Everyone shares in the responsibilities of life in the community. The Village has a strong agricultural component made up of farming and gardening. Craft work includes weaving, woodworking, and the arts as well as a licensed processing kitchen and bakery that provide for the needs of the Village and goods that are sold in the surrounding area. Life in the Village revolves around the cycles of nature, with festivals marking the changing seasons. Plays, concerts, lectures and continuing education add depth and color to the fabric of the community.

Camphill Village Minnesota
Caring for People, Caring for the Earth!

The impact of our donations will be used toward their Capital Project Goals to life in 2026-2027, aiming to raise $94,500. This funding is essential to strengthening their community spaces and expanding the impact of the work they do every day. Please see the Adult Ed piece in this newsletter for additional information.

THANKS!

Place of Hope will receive $$4,696.70 from the generous donations received in September. The number of men, women and children served by POH grows daily and Atonement's support will help a great deal.

DONATION OF THE MONTH – NOVEMBER 2026

New, cold weather socks for adults and kids. The Mission Committee has plans to distribute socks to the various homeless shelters.

NEEDED ITEMS:
Socks

For adults and children

There will not be a D.O.M. for December; please participate if you are able for gift requests from the Giving Tree that will be available by Thanksgiving. We will have stars again that indicate needs of families and some individuals. We work with Lutheran Social Services Refuge program and the Crisis Nursery to identify people in need. Last year members were very generous. Each year there seems to be similar items needed by many of the households; last year it was pots and pans and vacuum cleaners.

Thank you to all who brought donations in October of personal care items for Domus, a transitional housing program.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES FOOD SHELF VOLUNTEERS

Catholic Charities need aisle attendants, food sorters, and assistants in the clothing/household area. We encourage you to consider volunteering. Thank you.

Formerly in association with Vivie until their grant ended, the two dedicated staff will continue independently with the hope that other funding becomes available. The groups meet once a month on the third Tuesday, 10-11:30am. Specialists who are trained in the areas of caregiver needs and in the various stages of dementia-related illness, lead each group. REVIEW OF LUTHER CREST ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual meeting was held in the Luther Crest Chapel on Lake Carlos in Alexandria on Saturday, October 10, 2026. Our collective understanding is that Luther Crest Bible Camp continues to thrive and in the words of Pastor Maddie Elliot, Executive Director, "At Luther Crest, we see young people living out their baptismal calling."

The following excerpts were taken from Luther Crest's annual report:

- The Christmas bake sale continues with the addition of cinnamon rolls. Orders can be placed on November 1st with pickup dates December 11 and 12.
- Luther Crest served a total of 1,000 offsite day campers and over 1,200 onsite campers this past summer.
- Luther Crest has been invited to possibly merge with Camp Emmaus. A vote was taken to study the pros and coms of combining the two camps. Motion passed. A task force was established comprised of three Luther Crest Board members and three Camp Emmaus Board members.
- Stay tuned to happenings by checking the web site www.luthercrest.org

LETTER FROM YOUR PASTORS

Sharing the Joy: Part 2

What Happens When Someone Says Yes?

Last month, we told the story of how a simple invitation changed Pastor Tim's daughter Vera's experience of graduate school. She was lonely, far from home, and longing for a place where she could hear the good news of God's love in Christ. A pastor she met in a clinic simply said, "come and see." She did. That simple invitation led her to a community where she was welcomed, loved, and cared for.

So, what does it look like for us to extend that kind of invitation? And what do we do when someone actually says yes?

The good news is that we don't need a perfect strategy. We don't need to become experts at evangelism. We simply need to be willing to notice people, make an invitation, and offer the same kind of welcome we have received.

Putting an Invitation into Practice

There isn't a magic formula for inviting someone to church. In fact, the best invitation probably won't sound like a church invitation at all—it will sound like you.

- It doesn't require a sales pitch. (In fact, please don't make it one.)
- Start with the people who are already in your life.
- Pay attention.
- Pray for them.

When the opportunity comes, invite them. It could sound something like:

- "I'm going to church Sunday. Want to come with me? It's been important to me."
- "I'd like to share something that's important to me with you. Would you come to church with me sometime?"
- "Come with me this Sunday, then we can grab lunch afterward and talk about it."
- Sometimes it's even as simple as, "Come and see."

The point isn't to find the perfect words. It's to share an invitation with someone you care about, open the door, and give them the freedom to walk through it. Remember: an invitation is not a demand. If they say no, the relationship doesn't have to become awkward. Just leave the door open: "No problem. Can I invite you again some other time?" Then keep the friendship and keep talking about what's important to you.

What If They Say Yes?

Then your invitation becomes an opportunity for hospitality. Hospitality may look like:

- Meeting them. If they're nervous, meet them outside or give them a ride to worship. Walk in together. Show them where to go. Introduce them to a few people. Sit with them.
- Don't overwhelm them. Nobody needs a ten-minute explanation of every part of the liturgy. Let them experience worship. If they have questions, answer what you can. If you don't know, say, "I'm not sure. Let's ask someone."
- Stay with them. One of the most meaningful things you can do for a first-time visitor is to make sure they don't have to walk into a room full of strangers alone.

Please, don't turn the experience into a recruitment conversation. Have coffee and cookies. Take them out to lunch. Invite them to reflect on the message and the experience: "What was that like for you?" And then listen. They may love it. They may have questions. They may not understand something. They may not be ready to come back. That's okay. Chances are the worship wasn't perfect.

Your job isn't to control the outcome. Your job is to offer the invitation and let God take it from there.

Who Comes to Mind for Your Next Invitation?

Here's the challenge we'd like to leave with you.

- Think of one person. Not ten. Not everyone you know. Just one. Who might need to hear the good news of Jesus Christ and experience the welcome of this faith community? Who might simply need someone to notice them and say, "Come with me"?
- Pray for them. Pay attention to opportunities. And when the moment comes, make the invitation. We don't know what God might do with it.

It may feel small to you. It may not feel profound or spiritual. But don't underestimate what God can do with a simple invitation offered in love.

We are given joy that is not meant to keep to ourselves. We hear every week the good news that Christ died and rose for us, that our sins are forgiven, and that God's love for us does not depend on what we have done. That's worth sharing!

Come and see.

So, this week, find someone you love and simply say: "Come and see."
